Seems as if there is no meeting tomorrow night about Rockwool (formerly Roxul) in Ranson. However, Rockwool is hosting two meetings on Wed evening – one a community meeting and the other a media event. They have a PR firm with whom they're working. We're trying to get more details – just sharing what we have for now. It would be wise to find out more about the media event before we send Mark – don't you agree?

Yes. We plan to attend – the exact makeup of our delegation is still up in the air.

Yes, I believe Rockwool (or their PR firm) is taking the lead on setting up these events.

Thanks, Jacob.

Is it Rockwell that is having the meeting on Wednesday evening and was hoping to have EPA in attendance?

Thanks.

I don't know about anything tomorrow night. There may be a county commission or city council meeting or something, but nothing I am aware of.

Wednesday there are two events – a stakeholder meeting (they were trying to find someone from EPA I think) and a media event. I am not sure what time either event will be, since I think there was an effort to switch times. This event would not be only about the WVDEP-DAQ air permit, but would include several entities.

I am looping in Samantha Smith, my counterpart at Commerce.

She may have a contact for someone from Rockwool.
